The leaves may turn,
the years may too,
But wisdom shines in all we do.
September reminds us, clear and true, Life's richest season may still be new.

As we head into fall, now is a great time to take advantage of all the fresh herbs in pots outside in our courtyard. Don't forget to grab your keys as you head to our "backyard" to pick a few seasonings to enhance your meals.
